The Most Exciting Things That Your Library Did Last Year

Created a faculty research room to provide faculty a quiet comfortable place to work away from their offices and student interruptions.

Provided office space for the Charles Hamilton Houston Chair.

Hung portrait of former law library director, Anne K. Duncan, mother of Allyson Duncan, 4th Circuit Court of Appeals Judge. Ms. Duncan was the law librarian from 1952 – 1975.

Provided research workshops on International Law, Domestic Violence and Sexual Identity and the Law.

Created a faculty research assistant training program.

Created two new offices to accommodate staff growth.

The Biggest Challenges Facing Your Library in the Coming Year

Getting staff salaries to market level.

Provision of group study rooms

Staffing

Other Developments

Laurie Williams was appointed Access Services Librarian.

Jillian Williams was appointed Interim Reference Librarian.
