The Most Exciting Things That Your Library Did Last Year

Allowed 24 hour access for students during the exam period.

Hosted a "Chil-lax Room" in the Library from 4:00 p.m. to midnight during exams to provide stress relief for those students studying late into the night. A variety of games, puzzles and complimentary snacks, juice, coffee, fruit and tea were provided.

Offered a one-half day legal research boot camp which included breakfast, lunch and workshop sessions on case law, statutes, secondary sources and finding tools. The camp concluded with a game of legal research bingo.

Provided lunch-time refresher classes on secondary sources, Shepardizing, administrative law sources, North Carolina practice materials and primary sources. Students were given pizza and individualized instruction utilizing research exercises.

Implemented the SIRSI Serials Control module.

Created a Collection Development Librarian position.

The Biggest Challenges Facing Your Library in the Coming Year

Bringing librarian salaries within market range.

Space to accommodate a growing collection and staff.

Marketing library services to faculty, students and alumni.

Cataloging the entire collection.

Increasing title count.

Other Developments

Jillian Williams was appointed to the Collection Development Librarian position.

Linda Chilian accepted the Acquisitions Librarian position.

Ashley McDuffie was appointed Interim Electronic Resources Librarian.
